HISTORY

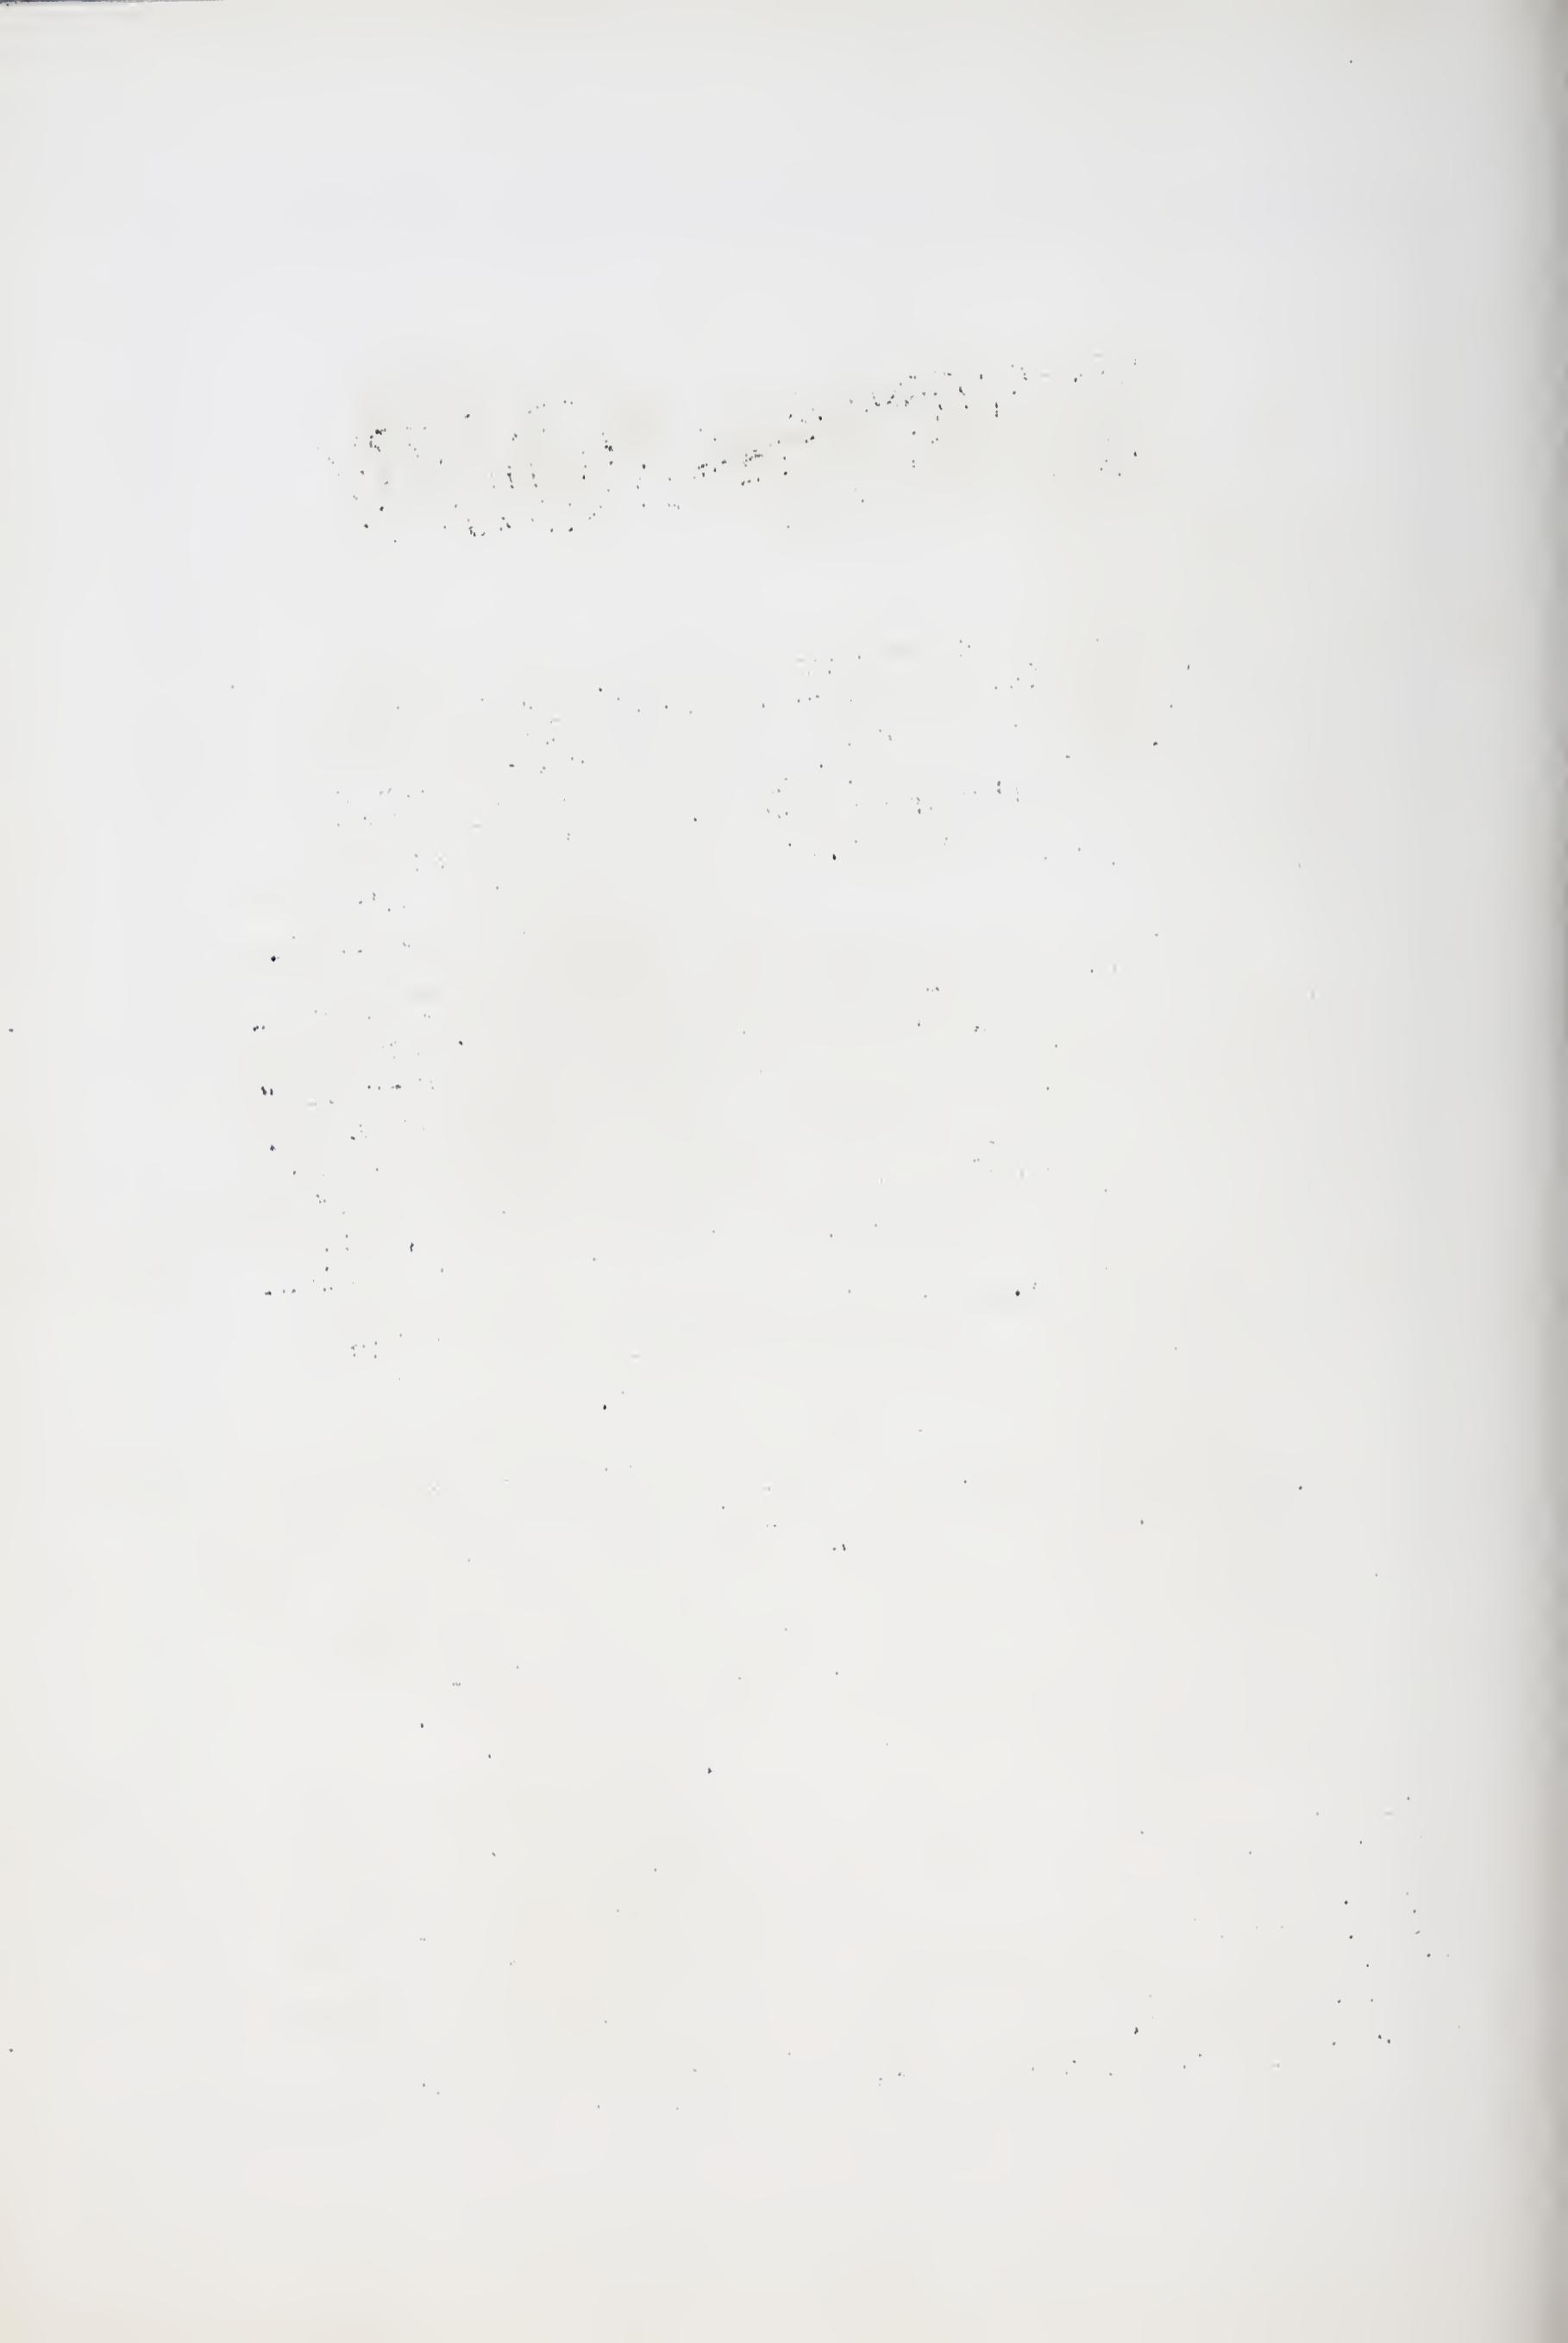

History is commonly regarded as a dead issue, a series of obscure, slightly decadent events. Not so the career of the Senior Class of 1941. Ours is a varied and interesting life span--a case history which rivals the most adventurous of stories. Let us, then, reexamine the biography of the late deceased class of 1941.

We entered Franklin High School in 1937 fifty-six strong--twenty-three boys and thirty-three girls. We soon outgrew the "red-headed step-child" feeling, and under the leadership of Jack Johnson, began to assert ourselves both socially and academically. Many of our members became interested in that most popular of sports --basketball, while others entered dramatics, journalism and acoustics.

As Sophomores, Harvey Wagoner held the reins of government, and we continued to pursue our various extra-curricular activities.

In the fall of 1939, we were promoted to the rank of Juniors. '39 was indeed a full year. What with basketball tournaments, plays, clubs, the "Junior-Senior", our days were crammed to the utmost, and yet we found a little time to study. Lela Lawrence carried off honors in the Home Economics Fashion Show, Marshals were Haywood Weddle, Jack Johnson, Dorothy Morris and Lela Lawrence.

The last chapter makes exciting history for thirty one members of the class of '41. We were Seniors in deed as well as in name. Our president, Harvey Wagoner, efficiently kept us in line. Significantly our scholastic honors were awarded to Lela Lawrence, Dorothy Morris and Harvey Wagoner. It is with alacrity not unmixed with compunction that we turn the last page.

class will

We, the Class of 1941, of Franklin High School, being of strong mind and sound body, but being aware that we are about to depart this life, do hereby make our last Will and Testament.

To the members of the Faculty, the class wills its ability to work.

To Mr. McCleod, we leave our thanks and good will.

To our parents we leave our everlasting love and devotion.

To members of the Junior Class we bequeath:

To Dorothy Nichols, Vivian Kaney leaves her cute ways.

William Carter leaves his big feet to James Lewis.

To Clara Belle Allred, Lola Lawrence leaves her talent.

Frances Norman will her height to Mae Moser.

To Walker Shelton, J.H. Hall bequeaths his "Rabbit cars".

Cnedia Booker wills her beauty as well as athletic ability to Christine Jones.

To William Wagoner, Reid Simmons leaves his shyness.

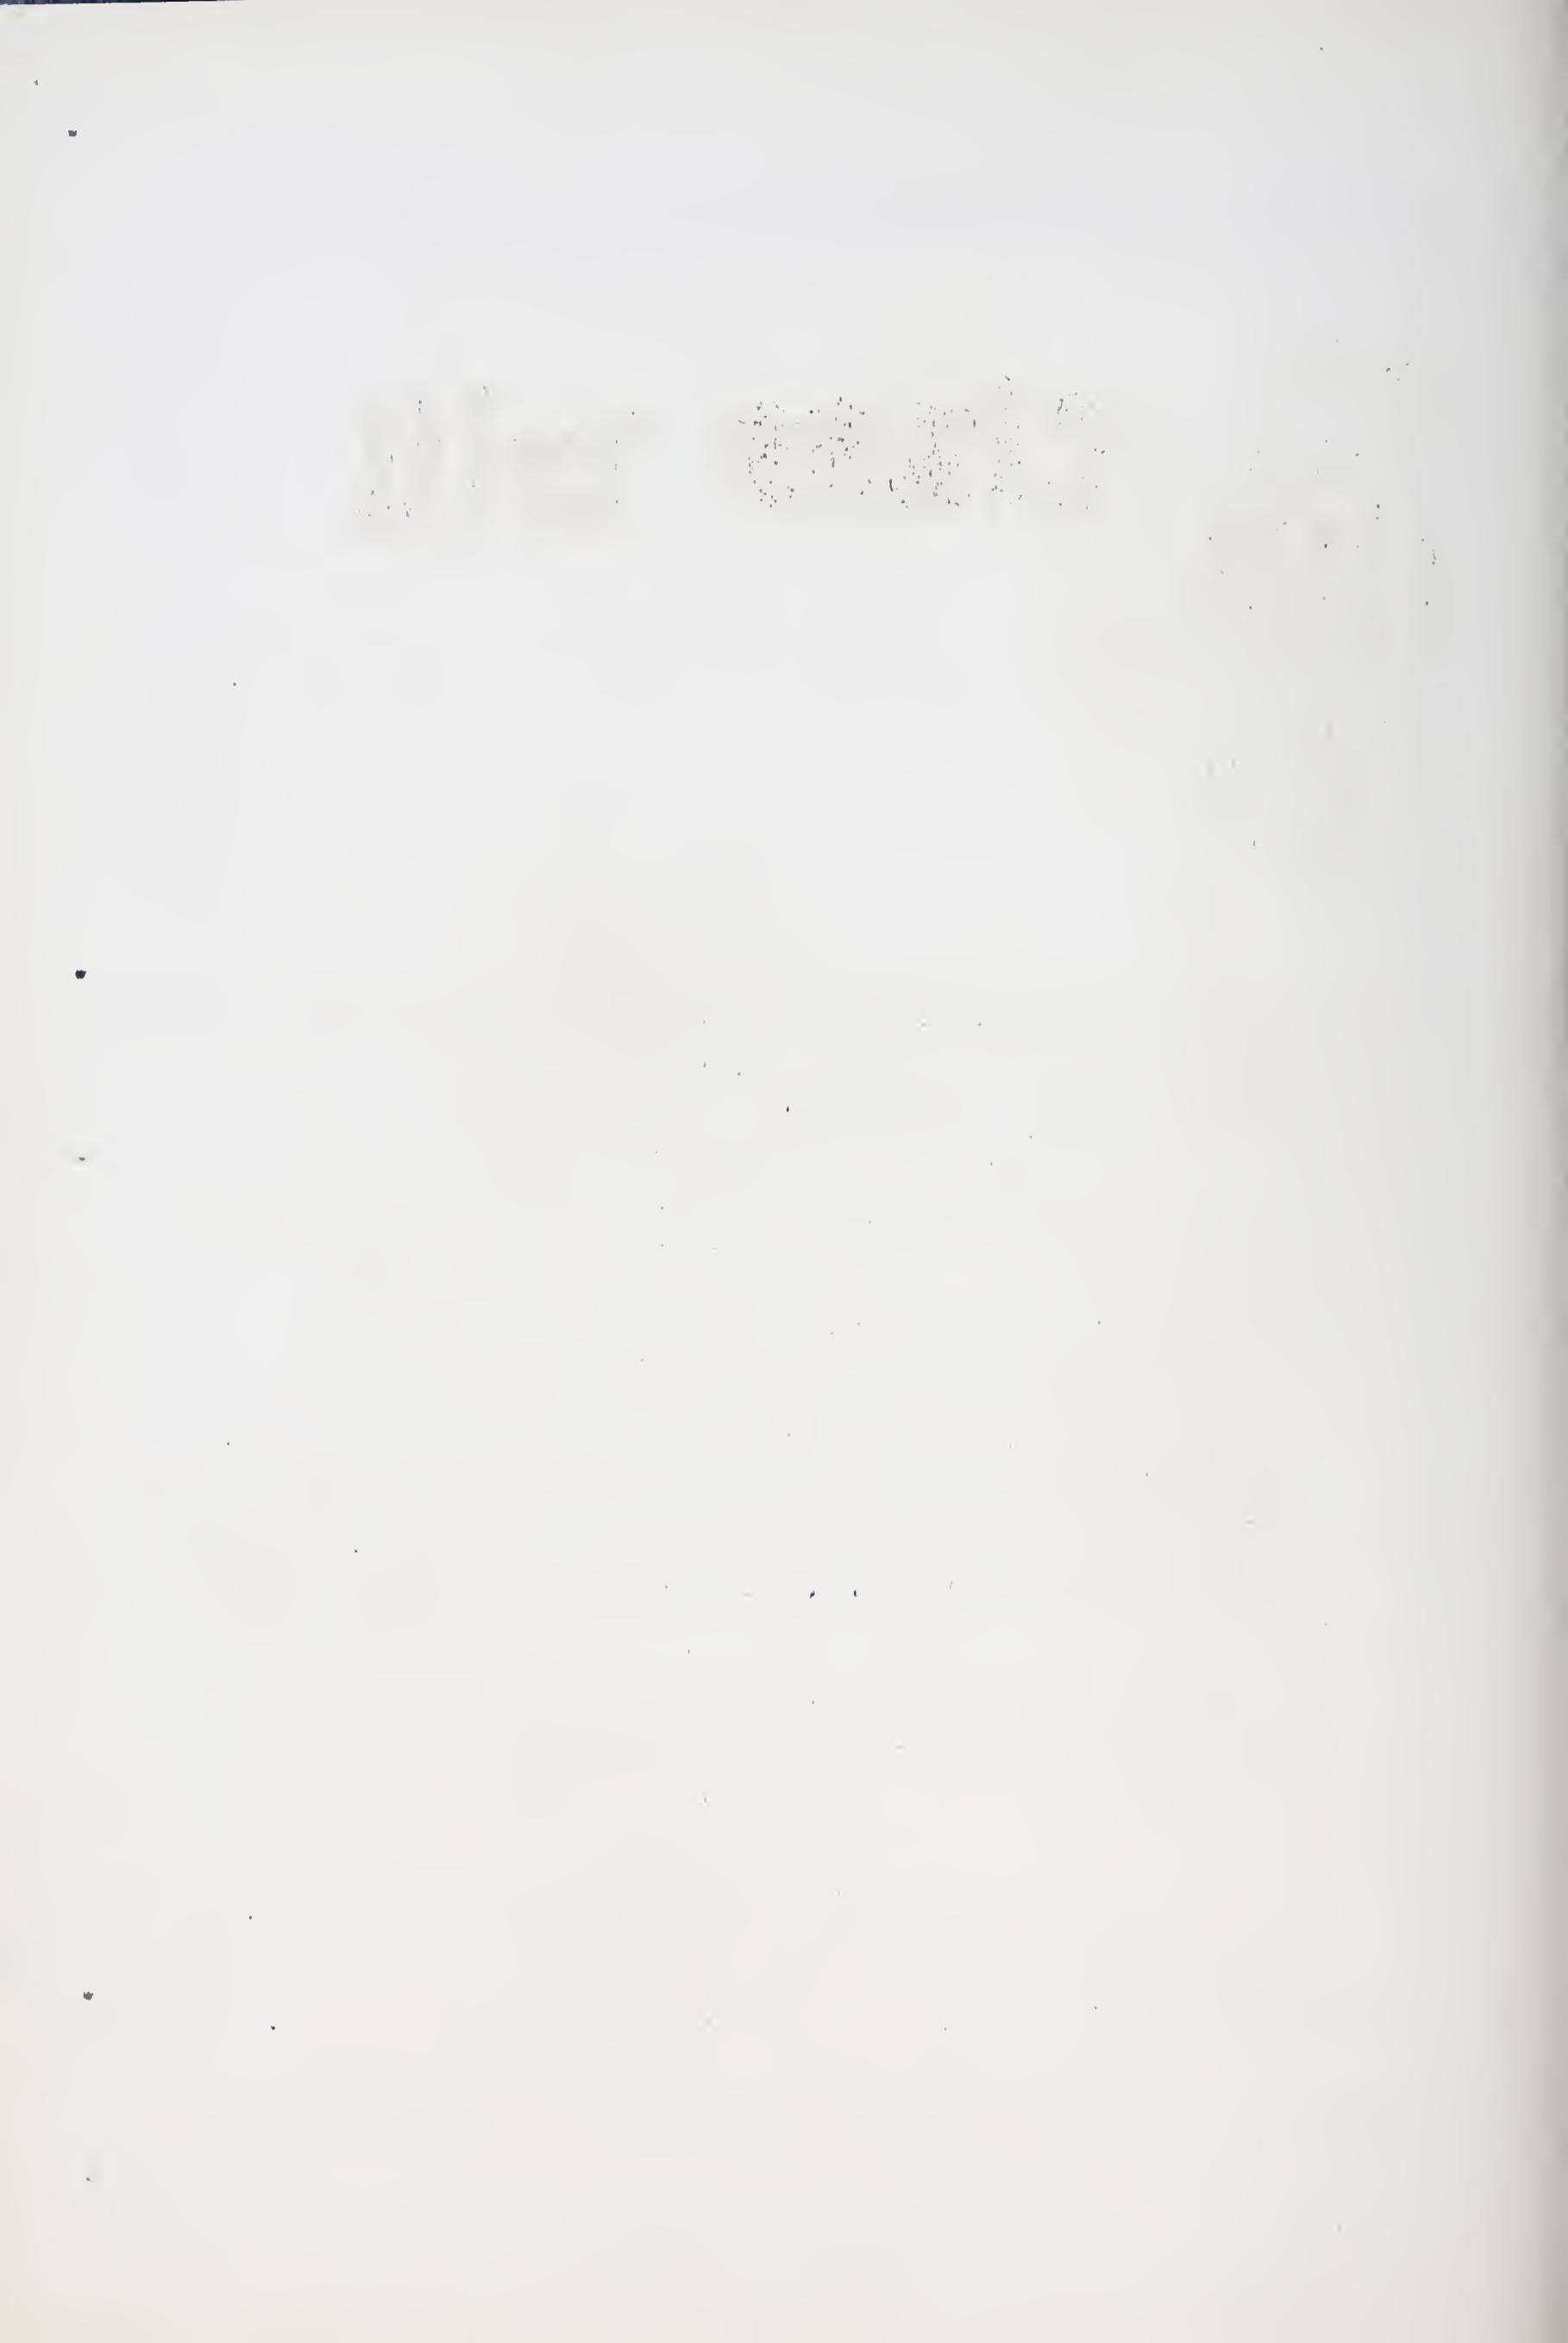

Haywood Woddle bequeaths his beard to Carroll Wagoner.

Tommie Lou Lolder grants her size to Helen Payne.

To Dorothy Nichols, Mabel Tickle leaves her soprano voice.

Henry Allred leaves his red hair with anyone who wants it.

Opal Mac Boyles wills her dramatic ability to Faye Jones.

Josephine Hudson leaves her prowess as a ball-player for Miss Kendall to divide among future guards.

Harry Lambert leaves his courting time to Roland Nichols.

Mary Nell Snow leaves her ability to move fast to Edward Shelton, for he seems to need it.

Dorothy Morris leaves her Senior dignity to Kathleen Lewis.

Louise Bowman and Melba McCraw leave to Clellann Ramey and Tom Davis their devotion to hard work.

Maizie Horton leaves her 10¢ comb to Alyene Arrington.

Lora Quisenberry leaves to Hazel McCraw her ability to keep a mixed up schedule.

Nova Smith and Lucille Martin leave their worn-out powder puffs to Josie Willard and Elizabeth Cox.

Ardena Jarrell wills her perfect attendance record to Tommie Gwyn.

Edith Hauser wills her typewriting ability to Walker Shelton.

Cla Faye Boyles perfect head of red curls is willed to Irene Harris.

Maudie Greenwood bequeaths her romantic temperament to Zinnia Smith.

Lottie Cundiff's poetic ability goes to Zula Sumner.

Lois Hooker leaves her quiet voice to Janie Lewis for we think he can use it.

In witness whereof, we, the Class of 1941, set our hands and seal to this, our Last Will and Testament. May 6, 1941.

Tommie Jones, Attorney.

PROPHETIC

I am the Great Madame Lazonga. Mine is the great power. Reflected in this ball I can perceive all that is to be--the events, the people and the lives of the future. And here are signs of great services to your country. In 1950 Harvey Wagoner will be the most famous surgeon of this nation. I can see the love of Louise Bowman for the underprivileged carrying her into a great orthopedic hospital; and serving as head nurse will be Melba McCraw. What! here is a great audience with the lovely voice of Mabel Tickle being heard on Major Bowles' Amateur Hour. Ah, I can see Josephine Hudson modeling the clothes that Queen Elizabeth wore while on her American tour. And here is Jack Johnson as General of our army and J. H. Hall as one of his lieutenants. Some of the most famous magazines of the land will hail Lottie Bell Cundiff as a well known poet of 1950. One of her best sellers is entitled "Ballads of Franklin". I can see The landlady holding Reid Simmons' clothing until he pays his rent. Lucille Martin will manufacture cosmetics, her lovely skin will prove her trade mark. I can see William Carter as pitcher of the Washington Senators. And here is the darling of Broadway being none other than Tommir Jones, his leading ladies are Frances Norman and Mazie Horton. Operating a public stenographic office in Miami are Mary Nell Snow and Ardena Jarrell. Whom do I now perceive? It is none other than Ola Faye Boyles and Lois Hooker operating a beauty shop in New York. The misty vapors of the crystal ball reveal Maude Greenwood living in a small cottage built for two. A series of contradictions, Yes! But Dorothy Morris is Dean of Men at Carolina, and Harry Lambert Head of Women's College of U. N. C. Opal Mae Boyles and Oneda Booker chalk up a first place again, that of being police women of Mt. Airy. Haywood Weddle and Nova Smith are pilots with Edith Hauser and Dora Quesinberry air hostesses. Fulfilling her desire for motoring Tommy Lou Holder will become the driver of an army ambulance. Lela Lawrence, always interested in sewing, will some day be a designer of dresses. Her superior talent carrying her to London, Paris and many foreign capitals.

Thus, my young friends, are your fortunes cast. May you prove diligent and happy in your various careers.

ATHLETICS

GIRLS' SPORTS

The girls basketball team showed a good record for a new team. Starting with only two regulars, Jo Hudson and Ola Faye Boyles, new recruits were soon welded into a smooth working combination. The end of the season saw a record of fifteen victories and eight losses.

Outstanding work was done by Berdine Nichols, a consistent scorer, who led the team in points for the season. Excellent guarding was done by Jo Hudson and Oneda Booker. Co-Captains of the team were Ola Faye Boyles and Jo Hudson.

Those receiving letters for first year service are:

Faye Jones	Berdine Nichols	Christine Jones
Josie Willard	Ardene Jarrell	Clara Belle Allred
Kathlene Lewis		Mary Nell Snow

Those receiving stars for second year service are:

Josephine Hudson	Oneda Booker	Dorothy Nichols
Ola Faye Boyles		Opal Mac Boyles

The Junior Varsity lost its county Championship title, won in last year's lit.airy tournament, but won the Consolation by defeating lit.airy 37 to 36. Members of this squad were: Maxine Jones, Jurrainc Golding, Lois Brinkley, Annie Lee Jarrell, Annie Chandler, Lillian Long, Gladys Freeman, Sue Mae Johnson, Ethel Hooker, Blanche Pavenport, Irene Carter, Helba McHone and Frances Brown.

BOYS SPORTS

The Boys' Basketball Squad had a very successful season, winning eleven out of twenty-two games - a fair record considering the size of our team. With the memory of last year's County Championship spurring them on, the members of the team fought hard to hold the title. They were forced, however to relinquish the title, this year, to Dobson, although the Franklin team was rated among the best in the county. This record is largely due to the unceasing labor and interest of our coach, J.C. Hiatt, who has worked faithfully with the team all season.

Total scoring: Franklin: 438 Opponents: 400.
High Scorer: William Wagoner, with 132 points.
Co-Captains of the team: Jack Johnson and Haywood Weddle.

The first team was composed of Jack Johnson, Haywood Weddle, Tom Davis, Tommie Jones, and William Wagoner.

DRAMATIC CLUB

The Dramatic Club was organized primarily for one purpose--the study of play production. It was hoped that the group might be able to express themselves in relation to one phase of play production--either lighting, acting, stage-craft, make-up, costuming, or scene designing. Lack of time and equipment made attainment of these purposes difficult. Our plans are to be worked out in the future.

During the year, the club presented several one-act plays. Outstanding among them was Paul Green's "No-Count Boy". The cast: The No-Count Boy-Harry Lambert; Pheelie-Opal Mae Boyles; Enos-Junior Tickle; Old Negro Woman-Zula Sumner.

Membors: Junior Tickle, Tommie Gwyn, Johnnie Gwyn, Claude Beasley, Tom Davis, Dick Lowe, Raymond Blackmon, William Carter, Harry Lambert, Tommie Jones, Mabel Tickle, Oneda Booker, Maude Greenwood, Opal Mae Boyles, Dorothy Nichols, Pauline Keye, Zula Sumner, Faye Jones, and Edward Shelton.

The Home Economics Club, composed of thirty-five girls and seventeen boys, was organized for the purpose of studying problems related to home life and social relations. Among the topics used for discussion were: How to Make and Keep Friends, Good Manners at Home, School, and in Public, Home Responsibility, Health, and First Aid.

The Creed of the Home Economics Club:

I believe as a student of Franklin High School, I should be:

Joyous, courageous and courteous,
Truthful, considerate, and just,
Loyal and sincere in friendship,
Too noble to speak ill of others,
Willing to forgive and forget,
Prompt and gracious in obedience,
Ready to do all possible service,
Quick to appreciate what is done for me,
Respectful of my elders,
True to the best that is within me, that
I may become a fine and worthy citizen.
